

| | | | |
|---------------------------------|--|---|--|
| STATE NEW HAMPSHIRE | COUNTY Grafton | TOWN OR VICINITY Bath-Upper Village 2p (Town of Bath) East side of U. S. Route 302) 3d | |
| INDEX NUMBER NH 5-BATH 1 | MONUMENT Woods-Goodale Law Offices | | |
| REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE | H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. NH-66 | History - Built in 1816 as the law offices of Andrew S. Woods and Ira | |
| PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS | Goodale, an important law firm of the time; Woods eventually became State Chief Justice; interior remodeled for use as a dwelling. | | |
| PUBLISHED DRAWINGS | Present owner: Paul Glover, Jr., a descendant of Goodale. | | |
| | | Description - Small, rectangular, brick building, two stories high, unusual curved front bay, gable roof, later wooden ell to the rear. | |

(over)

Reference: Interview with Katherine Blanton Glover (Mrs. Paul Glover, Sr., mother of the present owner), Bath Upper Village, New Hampshire.

Authors of Card - Osmund R. Overby and Henry C. Edwards, Architects, National Park Service, 143 S. Third Street, Philadelphia 6, Pa. - September 1959.